

Remember telling you I met someone
You couldn't stop me from smiling
And if I knew you were lost
Would've helped you no matter cost

I'm at the point where I can feel my feelings
Yea, you can stare me right in the eye
And I will feel only moderate discomfort
I gotta say I've come a long long way
And now I'm here to say

What was all of that back in college when I needed you the most?
Now I'm all alone at your wedding and I'm fucking up your toast
You see? You're running through my head

It's alright to hate you
I'm not even sure I would date you now
Cuz I know when you go...
I'm just like
Why did I need to know that?
What did I need to know that?

Is it a felony to miss someone?
Then honey why am I on trial?
Your honor, guilty as charged.
Your honor, guilty as charged.
Why are you making me repeat myself?
I must've told you thousands of times
And yet I'm here, still here, bored and exhausted, and I still I've got a long long way
And I got a lot more to say

Remember when you had economics and a run in with the cops
Who but me was ever gonna get you to stop
You see? You're running through my head

It's alright to hate you
I'm not even sure I would date you now
Cuz I know when you go...
I'm just like
Why did I need to know that?
What did I need to know that?

I like to celebrate and live my life
Saying ay oh ay oh ...
